ARE ONLY MOCK JURIES

Remarks made by Judge Robinson yesterday during the argument before him of the question of whether the September term of court has lapsed, indicated that the court was disposed to decide in favor of the defendants, call the term off altogether because it was not opened on Monday, September 2, "the first Monday in September," and at once call a special term for the trial of pending cases. This will mean a delay, as new jurors will have to be drawn and this must be done ten days before the opening of the term.

The law provides that any circuit judge may call a special term with the approval of the Chief Justice, and if the court rules in favor of the contentions made by Judge Humphreys in the Ah On case yesterday and by Judge Perry in the Takada case, no time will be lost in setting the machinery in motion to begin a new term. The lawyers and defendants will have to wait a couple of weeks, instead of going ahead at once with their cases.

One reason for the expected delay is that a great deal of litigation will be saved. The point as to whether the term lapsed or not affects every case, and there are three or four hundred, civil and criminal, in which the right of a trial at term exists. All proceedings taken in term are affected, and if the courts should go ahead with cases and then be met with a ruling of the Supreme Court that the term had lapsed, there would be a great deal of confusion and expense.

There will be new Grand and trial juries for the special term, if one is called. The drawing and summoning of jurors will all have to be done over again. The existing Grand Jury has already held some sessions and has examined a number of witnesses. It is understood to be ready to find several indictments, but has adjourned to Thursday in view of the doubt as to its legal existence. The trial jurors

CHINA CARRIES MANY MISSIONARIES

PACIFIC MAIL LINER ARRIVES THIS MORNING WITH LARGE THROUGH CROWD.

With five days later mail the S. S. China arrived this morning from San Francisco after an uneventful trip. She has a large crowd of passengers for the Orient but brought few passengers for Honolulu. The vessel left San Francisco September 6. She sighted several vessels on her way to this port including the transport Buford night before last.

The China always is a popular boat with missionaries but this trip she has a much larger crowd of them than usual. She has no less than 23 missionaries and members of their families aboard. The missionaries were met at the wharf this morning by local church people and will be entertained during the stay of the vessel in Honolulu. The China also has a number of handsome young women going to Hong Kong.

The vessel will call at Manila on her present trip. She is loading 650 tons of coal at Honolulu. Chief Steward Ashman of the S. S. Korea is aboard the China in a similar capacity. He was recalled from his vacation to take the berth on the China made vacant by the death of Chief Steward Darling. The vessel has 15 cows for Hong Kong. T. E. Gibson is a prominent railroad attorney of Los Angeles. He is en route to Yokohama. It is understood, for the purpose of consulting with President E. H. Harriman regarding the establishment of a through line of steamers between San Pedro, California and the Orient for the Salt Lake and Los Angeles Railroad. He is accompanied by his wife.

G. B. Perkins is a nephew of H. E. Huntington and is en route to the Orient on pleasure. He is accompanied by Mrs. Perkins. M. Terano is an official of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, going to Yokohama on business.

Sydney Collier and wife are British tourists going to Hong Kong. Bishop C. S. C. Breysfogel is a Methodist clergyman going to Yokohama.

W. Matlock Campbell returned to Honolulu after a business trip to California. O. St. John Gilbert the bee magnate of the Hawaiian Islands, returned from a business trip to San Francisco and California.

S. K. Himeol a former member of the legislature returned from the mainland.

Miss Alice Roth arrived.

S. H. Derby the attorney returned from a trip to the mainland.

The China is scheduled to sail from the Channel wharf for the Orient and Manila at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

of all the courts have attended in response to summonses. If the term is held to have lapsed there will be a question as to the right of the members of these juries to their jury fees for attendance. They may find that they have only been playing at being jurors, and that the game stops when it comes to drawing the fees.

A SALE OF COWS WITH TUBERCULOSIS

(Continued from Page 4.) said that in no other dairy on the islands had he been given so much assistance as on mine.

Attorney General Andrews, Dr. Nordgaard and Superintendent Holloway, as well as County Attorney Douthitt, were in conference with the governor on the subject. The matter was left to the county authorities. Just what action will be taken has not been decided. It will be a subject of discussion by Douthitt and the Board of Health and Agriculture and Forestry.

NAVAL VESSEL WILL CARRY A DECK LOAD OF LUMBER AND COAL.

Captain Niblack expects to get away on Thursday with the U. S. S. Iroquois for Midway. The vessel has coal and has most of her supplies on. She will, however, take on 6000 feet of lumber and 5 tons of coal as deck load, the latter for the marine guard. The Iroquois has to take on 20 tons of supplies brought today by the U. S. S. Iris from the mainland. Gerrit Wilder and Lieutenant Harlee will depart on the Iroquois.

RULE AND REGULATION NO. 1.

INSPECTION OF IMPORTED LIVE STOCK.

In order to prevent the introduction into this Territory of infectious, contagious and communicable diseases among live stock and other animals, local managers or agents of Steamship and Navigation lines or the commanding officer of any ship shall notify the Territorial Veterinarian or the local Live Stock Inspector immediately upon the arrival of any ship, of the presence on board if any, of live domestic animals, including poultry and dogs, when same is intended to be landed in this Territory and shall upon arrival of any ship furnish the inspecting officer with a list of the number and kind of animals taken on board from any port outside of this Territory, the number and kind destined for the Territory, the names of the owners or consignees, and a report as to the condition of health and cases of sickness or death among the animals while on board.

If necessary to remove such animals before the arrival of the inspector, they must be confined on the pier in such a manner as to facilitate inspection, but should in no case be turned loose on the pier. Hogs and sheep shall be confined in temporary pens. Cattle and horses shall be tied on the pier. No animal of any description shall be allowed to leave the pier until the Territorial Veterinarian or local Live Stock Inspector has issued a certificate of health permitting the landing of the animal or animals in question.

In no case shall the removal of live animals from the ship for inspection or other purposes, constitute a landing until a certificate of health for such animals has been issued.

Until further notice the ports of Honolulu, Oahu, and Hilo, Hawaii, shall constitute the only ports of entry for live stock and other animals for this Territory.

Any violation of this regulation is a misdemeanor.

RULE AND REGULATION NO. 2.

INSPECTION AND TESTING OF IMPORTED LIVE STOCK, FOR GLANDERS OR TUBERCULOSIS.

In order to prevent the further introduction of glanders and farcy into this Territory it is hereby ordered that:

No horse stock, including mules and asses, shall be admitted to the Territory unless accompanied by a certificate of health showing that the animal or animals in question have been submitted to the mallein test and found to be free from glanders. Said test must be made and certificate issued by a competent veterinarian whose name appears upon the list of graduates from a recognized veterinary college and whose professional standing is satisfactory to this board. The test must be made according to the rules of the Territorial Veterinarian and recorded on blanks furnished by him for this purpose.

If such animals shall not have been tested before shipment they shall upon arrival in this Territory be placed in quarantine and held there until mallein tested under the supervision of the Territorial Veterinarian or the local Live Stock Inspector and at the expense of the owner.

Any person contemplating the importation of horse stock to this Territory shall notify the Territorial Veterinarian or the local Live Stock Inspector and obtain from him the necessary blanks and instructions.

In order to prevent the further introduction of tuberculosis in cattle it is hereby ordered, that:

No cattle above the age of six months shall be admitted to the Territory unless accompanied by a certificate of health showing that the animal or animals have been submitted to the tuberculin test and found to be free from tuberculosis. The said test must be made under the same condition as those governing the importation of horse stock and be recorded on blanks furnished by the Territorial Veterinarian. If unaccompanied by such certificate the animals shall be tested upon arrival in the same manner as prescribed for horse stock.

If any horse stock shall be found by the Territorial Veterinarian or the local Live Stock Inspector, upon arrival in the Territory, to be infected with glanders or any cattle to be infected with tuberculosis, the same shall be immediately destroyed and the carcass disposed of at the expense of the owner, under the supervision of the Territorial Veterinarian or the local Live Stock Inspector.

Any violation of this regulation is a misdemeanor.

This regulation shall take effect at once.

C. S. HOLLOWAY,
Executive Officer, Board of Agriculture and Forestry.

Approved September 11, 1905.
G. R. CARTER,
Governor.

BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FORESTRY, DIVISION OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY, TERRITORY OF HAWAII.

RULE AND REGULATION NO. 3.

CONCERNING GLANDERED HORSE STOCK IN THE TERRITORY.

It having been brought to the notice of this board that a contagious disease known as glanders and farcy prevails among the horse stock in various portions of this Territory; therefore, in case any animal shows symptoms of glanders, the owner or person having charge of the same, or any person having reason to believe or to suspect that an animal has glanders shall immediately notify the Territorial Veterinarian or the local Live Stock Inspector.

If the Territorial Veterinarian or the local Live Stock Inspector decides that there is reason to believe an animal is suffering from glanders he shall at once isolate the suspected animal or animals and either submit them to the mallein test or remove them to quarantine, where they shall be kept under observation until the nature of the disease can be definitely established.

All animals which upon examination by the Territorial Veterinarian or the local Live Stock Inspector are found to exhibit definite symptoms of glanders shall be destroyed and the carcass disposed of under the supervision of one of the above mentioned officers.

All other animals which have been exposed to the infection by being in the same stall, yard or premises, or which in any way have come in contact with an affected animal, shall be quarantined for such period as shall be required by the Territorial Veterinarian or the local Live Stock Inspector, or submitted to the mallein test.

The premises where affected animals have been kept shall be disinfected under the supervision of the Territorial Veterinarian or the local Live Stock Inspector.

All expenses in connection with the examination, testing, destroying and disposing of affected animals, as well as quarantine and disinfection, shall be paid by the owner.

Any violation of this regulation is a misdemeanor.

This regulation shall take effect at once.

Approved September 11, 1905.
G. R. CARTER,
Governor.

BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FORESTRY.

Office of Territorial Veterinarian.

Honolulu, Sept. 12, 1905.

All owners of horse stock in this Territory should carefully and regularly examine their animals to ascertain if they exhibit any of the symptoms of glanders or farcy as follows:

Discharge from the Nose.—This condition occurs in a number of diseases, as for instance catarrh of the nose and strangles (distemper, epizootic), but in glanders it is usually quite characteristic. In mild cases it is not very abundant but is thick and quite sticky, of a transparent whitish color, somewhat resembling the white of an egg. This sticky discharge adheres to the margin of the nostrils forming tough brownish scales and crusts. The discharge does not necessarily sink when dropped in water, as is popularly believed.

The most characteristic symptoms of glanders is the presence of ulcers in the nose, usually on the partition between the nasal chambers. These ulcers are not always plainly in sight, but may be brought into view by holding the nostrils well open and turning the nose toward the sun. They vary in size from 1-8 to 1-4 inch in diameter up to one or two inches, and may become confluent and form large patches, always with ragged irregular edges. The ulcers may heal and leave depressed wrinkled scars. The amount of discharge from the nose depends upon the extent of the ulcerations, when small the discharge is scant and when more extensive it becomes more abundant. Frequently the discharge and ulcers occur only on one side. There is nearly always a swelling of the glands between the branches of the lower jaw, but not to the same extent as in strangles, and they rarely suppurate or break open.

The type of glanders known as farcy consists in a specific inflammation of the lymph vessels and glands of the skin and may occur on any part of the body or limbs.

The glands become swollen, forming the so-called farcy buds, and often occurring as a chain of nodules along the enlarged lymph vessels. The nodules break open and discharge a yellowish white, sticky pus, forming crusts similar to those seen around the nostrils. The abscesses may heal up and new ones form in the same vicinity or on more distant parts of the body.

The disease may be either chronic or acute in its course and the chronic form may at any time become acute. Mules and asses almost invariably develop the acute form while in horses either form may be seen. Want of feed and over work frequently causes latent glanders in the horse to become acute.

The disease is often accompanied by a short dry hacking cough and a tendency to sudden swelling of one of the legs, especially the hind legs.

In a large number of cases of glanders the symptoms are very slight even though the animals may have been affected for months or even years and herein lies the great danger of the spread of the disease to other animals or to man.

In the course of a few days the Territorial Veterinarian will have for distribution copies of Bureau of Animal Industry Circular No. 78 entitled "Glanders and Farcy" and which gives a detailed description of the history, nature, symptoms, diagnosis and prevention of the disease in question.

All requests for this circular should be addressed to
